The screenshot shows the PapersOwl plagiarism checker interface. At the top, there's a navigation bar with 'Services', 'About us', 'Writing Tools', 'Blog', 'Support', 'LOGIN', and 'ORDER NOW'. Below the navigation, a large text area contains a document's content. To the right of this area, a summary box displays a 'Similarity index' of '12.8%' and a button to 'I NEED PLAGIARISM-FREE CONTENT'. Below this, a section titled 'Text matches' lists two sources with their similarity percentages: '1 https://jurnalinsancendikia.wordpress.com/2019/02/18/kebijakan-publik-dalam-bantuan-operasional-sekolah-di-dinas-pendidikan/ 11.5%' and '2 https://www2.ed.gov/parents/need-to-know/parenting/parenting-101/parenting-101-115 8.8%'. At the bottom left of the main text area, it says '516 words (5002 characters)'. At the bottom right, there's a link to 'Check another text'.
